

Fisheries and Wildlife Fall 2008

GSO Seminar Series

-  September 5 “Timber harvest and the dynamics of trout populations in small headwater stream networks: lessons learned from a paired-watershed experiment in western Oregon”
Aaron Berger – Quantitative Fisheries Center (MSU)
-  September 12 “Uganda's forest biodiversity: studying Apes and Aves in a new study abroad course”
Gabe and Sarah Hamer – Dept. of Fisheries and Wildlife (MSU)
-  September 19 "Michigan Natural Features Inventory: Enabling conservation through inventory, monitoring, and research using avian collisions with wind turbines and communication towers as a case study"
Yu Man Lee-Acting Director (Michigan Natural Features Inventory)
Joelle Gehring-(Michigan Natural Features Inventory)
-  September 26 “Lake Ontario coastal fish community structure and function: the role of the physicochemical setting”
Kristi Arend – Postdoctoral Research Associate (Purdue)
-  October 3 “Reintroduction of Pacific lamprey in the upper Umatilla River in Northeast Oregon”
Andrew Wildbill – Dept. of Fisheries and Wildlife (MSU)
-  October 10 “Factors Associated with Amphibian Occupancy in Forested Ownerships of Michigan’s Southern Lower Peninsula”
Gary Roloff – Dept. of Fisheries and Wildlife (MSU)
-  October 17 “Reproductive Polymorphisms in Red Squirrels”
Ryan Taylor – Zoology Department (MSU)
-  October 24 “Recovery of Pallid Sturgeon in the lower Missouri River”
Tracy Hill – Project Leader, United States Fish and Wildlife Service
-  October 31 "Stock specific lipid mobilization and reproductive investment patterns in lake trout"
Cheryl Murphy - Dept. Fisheries and Wildlife (MSU)
-  November 7 “TBA”
Jerry Urquhart – Lyman Briggs College (MSU)
-  November 14 “TBA”
Tracy Galarowicz – Biology Department (CMU)
- November 21 “Complex effects of nutrients and zebra mussels on toxic cyanobacteria”
Ace Sarnelle – Dept. of Fisheries and Wildlife (MSU)
-  December 7 “Environmental Stewardship at Michigan State University”
Lynda Boomer – Energy and Environmental Engineer (MSU)

*All seminars take place on Friday's in room 19 Natural Resources Building @ 3:30pm.
Snacks and drinks will be provided!!!!*

Seminar Committee:

Jon Deroba derobajo@msu.edu
Shikha Singh singhsh6@msu.edu
Brett Alger algerb@msu.edu