

ESPP Summer Research Fellowship

Research Presentations

ESPP offered Summer Research Fellows in the areas of Climate, Food, Energy and Water for the summer of 2016. The funds were used to enhance the educational and research experience of the graduate student. The 17 fellows have now completed their summer research and will present their findings to their peers, advisors and the general public. Please join us.

Date	Topic	Presenters
1:00 p.m. Thursday Oct. 20	Water and Land Use in American West	Mary Doidge (Agricultural, Food and Resource Economics), Emily Dittmar (Plant Biology), Haoyang Li (Economics)
12:00 p.m. Tuesday Oct. 25	Energy	Mahlet Garedew (Biosystems and Agricultural Engineering), Hamed Najafabadi (Chemistry), Tsuyoshi Oshita (Media & Information Studies)
3:00 p.m. Tuesday Nov. 1	Water and Food Nexus in Africa	Rajiv Paudel (Geography), Brad Peter (Geography), Judith Namanya (Geography), Tula Ngasala (Engineering)
3:00 p.m. Tuesday Nov. 8	Climate Change	Riva Denny (Sociology), Udit Sanga (Community Sustainability), Ran Duan (Journalism), Laura Twardochleb (Fisheries & Wildlife)
1:30 p.m. Tuesday Nov. 15	Water and Food in the Midwest	Zach Curtis (Environmental Engineering), Melissa Rojas (Biosystems and Agricultural Engineering), Lin Liu (Earth and Environmental Sciences)

All events will take place in 273 Giltner Hall.
Refreshments will be served.