

Welcomes

Henry Cisneros

In celebration of National Hispanic Heritage Month

Henry Cisneros, PhD, currently Co-Chairs the Bipartisan Policy Center's Immigration Task Force.

He is a four-time Mayor of San Antonio, TX, and has served as the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, and Deputy Chair of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Cisneros is the author of 14 books, including Urban Real Estate Investment: A New Era of Opportunity, Latinos and the Nation's Future, and Interwoven Destinies, Cities and the Nation.

He has a PhD in Public Administration from The George Washington University.

Cities and the Economy, Smart Growth and Sustainability, and American Latinos and the Nation's Future

Wednesday, October 11, 2017, from 5–6 p.m.
Kellogg Hotel & Conference Center in East Lansing
Free and open to the public!

Event Co-Sponsors: The MSU Julian Samora Research Institute, the Chicano Studies Program, the Environmental Science & Policy Program, and University Outreach and Engagement.

School of Planning, Design and Construction
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY